

BA (Hons) in Integrative Counselling & Psychotherapy

September 2019

INTRODUCTION

Our four-year BA (Hons) in Integrative Counselling and Psychotherapy is now enrolling for the 2019 intake. This innovative programme is validated by QQI and accredited by IACP, Ireland's largest professional body. With a seamless transition from theory to practice, graduates of this programme are perfectly placed to pursue an enriching and fulfilling career as a therapist in the helping professions.

COURSE STRUCTURE

The programme is delivered on a part-time basis. There are a number of options available:

Weekly Delivery:

Tuesday 9:30am-5:00pm; or
Saturdays 9:30am-5:00pm

Block Delivery (Monthly):

Friday 6:00pm-10:00pm
Saturday 9:00am-5:00pm
Sunday 9:00am-5:00pm

There is a 90% attendance requirement. There is one additional Professional Knowledge Seminar per year.

STUDENT BENEFITS

With a high level of student support, learners can attain the required skills to effectively respond to those in emotional or psychological distress.

Learners are afforded the space, time and support to develop an integrative model of practice for work with clients. With established links to an on-site therapy centre, IICP offers a seamless transition from classroom to clinical practice.

WHO SHOULD APPLY

This course is designed for people who wish to become professional therapists, or for those who have an opportunity to use counselling skills as part of their work.

The programme will also appeal to a variety of professionals who wish to augment and build upon previous training in the addiction, social care, health, education and mental health professions.

OUR ETHOS

IICP prides itself on an ethos of student support. While undertaking this dynamic and exciting programme of study, learners are guided and nurtured as they acquire the necessary skills, knowledge and competence to become effective practitioners. Learners are fully supported in terms of obtaining a relevant clinical placement, where they can complete the required client hours.

- Clinical Supervision – Learners complete a minimum of 24 hours of one-to-one supervision over the duration of the programme.
- Group Therapy – Learners complete 10 sessions of group therapy in the final stages of the programme. Average cost: €20 per session.
- Professional Knowledge Seminar – Learners attend IICP's annual Professional Knowledge Seminar each year. Cost: €25 in 2019.
- IACP – In advance of commencing clinical work in third year, learners obtain student membership of IACP and achieve successful IACP Garda vetting. Cost: €84 for membership and €30 for Garda vetting in 2018, which may be subject to change from time to time.
- Clinical Work – Learners complete 120 hours of direct one-to-one client work as part of the programme.

Learners understand that the costs of these activities are not covered by programme fees and that successful completion of the BA (Hons) is dependent on submitting the necessary evidence that these criteria are fulfilled.

Personal therapy and clinical supervision can cost from €30 per session upwards. Fees are negotiable between learners and individual therapists/supervisors.

WHY CHOOSE IICP?

- IICP has a proven track record, having delivered professional counselling and psychotherapy training since 2003.
- IICP has a first-class faculty team, with expertise in both the field of counselling and psychotherapy, and in teaching and learning.
- The BA (Hons) is an engaging and exciting programme of study, that expertly blends theory, skills and personal development.
- QQI validation ensures the award is recognised nationally as well as internationally.
- IACP course accreditation means that graduates of our BA (Hons) can become pre-accredited members of Ireland's largest professional body.
- Our integrative approach equips learners with the ability to utilise a range of therapeutic approaches – clients are different and may want and need different approaches to therapy.
- IICP has a high level of student support. Learners are guided and nurtured as they progress during the programme.
- IICP has established links with an on-site clinical placement centre, Village Counselling Service (VCS), which is the largest community-based counselling service in Ireland. Additionally, there are many other approved placement centres throughout Ireland, with whom we work.
- IICP is a member of the Higher Education Colleges Association (HECA).

TESTIMONIALS FROM PAST STUDENTS:

Mia Doering - BA Graduate

In my time at IICP, my experience of myself and my world has been thrown open. It has been revolutionised, and gradually has settled in a much broader, more open, healthier place.

I learnt that psychotherapy theories are not just to glean skills to use with clients, or something to reference for essays, but are maps for our daily existence, our relationships, or experience of being. I am braver, tougher, stronger, kinder.

Niamh Crowley - BA Graduate

For any person reading this and considering joining the IICP family I can highly recommend it. Some tips I would give are don't panic if you have never written an academic paper; the lecturers are superb and on hand to assist and even do a workshop on it. You will make friends in your class that you will have, I believe, for life.

COST:

Application Fee:	€60
Annual Fees:	€3,850
